Jeff started in the drycleaning industry in 1991, with Covers Etc. where he was one of their corporate trainers. In 1999 he joined A.L. Wilson Chemical Co. and has worked for A.L. Wilson for 15 yrs. His territory covers the 14 western states and western Canada. Jeff has served in several local and state drycleaning associations since 1992 including California Cleaners Association (CCA) Western States Dry-clean & Laundry Association (WSDCLA) and Southwest Drycleaners Association (SDA) and the Alberta Textile Care Association (ATCA).

He will visit over 550 plants per year in his work and he has been personally involved in over 100 spotting/bleaching seminars in addition to conducting in-plant training sessions across the country. Jeff is sometimes referred to as the "Stain Wizard" or with other endearing terms, but make no mistake - he knows his stuff. Jeff is very entertaining - you will not be bored!
